

If you would like to view this email in a Web browser, click here.
Click here to forward this mailing to a friend.

enriching our community

CLAYTON CENTURY FOUNDATION

A Monthly Newsletter for Friends and Supporters of the Clayton Century Foundation

Upcoming Events

Musical Nights Presents Flaming Pie

Sunday, June 24
Oak Knoll Park
5:00 p.m. - 7:00 p.m.

CCF History Speaker Series Presents Mark Thorp

Wednesday, July 18
The Center of Clayton
7:00 p.m.

CCF History's Speaker Series, free presentations on a wide variety of local topics, continues with Mark Thorp, City of Clayton Chief of Fire Department. The Chief will discuss the illustrious history of our community's fire department.

MUSICAL NIGHTS KICKS OFF THE SEASON WITH FLAMING PIE

Bring a blanket and a picnic dinner for a night of live music in Oak Knoll Park! Join your neighbors and step back in time to the music of the British Invasion era with covers of your favorite oldies music. Flaming Pie returns for its third year for this special outdoor concert series on Sunday, June 24 from 5:00pm to 7:00pm.

About the Band: Flaming Pie, a local St. Louis band, plays British Invasion music including the Beatles, Rolling Stones, The Who, Zombies, The Hollies and other great "invaders" from the 60s. The band also plays music from subsequent British Invasions in the 70s and 80s, including artists such as Led Zeppelin, Badfinger, Elton John, The Cure and David Bowie.

RECENT EVENTS

GO GREEN CLAYTON 5K RUN/WALK A BIG SUCCESS

In its second year, the GO GREEN! Clayton 5K run/walk attracted around 400 participants of all ages. The event kicked off Sunday morning at 8:30 a.m. with a 5k run starting at Gay Field and winding through the streets of downtown Clayton. Participants of both the 5k race and half mile fun run enjoyed snacks, fruit and bottled water after the races.

The run was sponsored by the Clayton High School Green Club, the School District of Clayton and the Clayton Century Foundation.

BILL MCCLELLAN DELIVERS A WONDERFUL SPEECH

CCF History Speaker Series presented Bill McClellan, who gave a heartfelt talk about life as a columnist. The presentation was held at the St. Louis Artists' Guild. After the presentation, guests enjoyed wine from Edg-Clif Vineyard, a Missouri winery.

LOOK OUT FOR THE CCF JUNE MAILER

Important news about CCF Key Projects and special upcoming events will be arriving in your mailboxes in a couple of weeks! The Clayton Century Foundation has been working closely with corporate citizens and residents to commit to projects and programs that will enhance the Clayton community. The CCF is proud of the continuing support from residents as well as community corporations. With your help, we can reach our supporter goals! Join your friends and neighbors in supporting the CCF today.

379
community supporters

GOAL: 500
supporters

38 corporate supporters

Goal: 50
supporters

Become A Supporter Today!

Your individual donations make a big difference and create a groundswell of support.

SNAPPED! PETEY SPORTS A NEW LOOK

Clayton's Mascot of the Year, Petey, gets a new haircut for summertime!

Donate NowBecome a CCF Member today! Your donation of any amount helps us to enhance our community.	Clayton Capital Projects made possible by the CCF 	 Clayton Century Foundation 10 N. Bemiston Clayton, MO 63105
--	---	---